always present
optional
ASPIRE
Harness
optional: validation and test data, description of the system, intended use, physical requirements required: training data, model form, evaluation mode, budget Task intake
from a task specification or a task interview: writes the task brief, prepares the working directory Working directory
task brief
training and validation data agent's scripts
candidate models
Agent(s)
through the tools
Main agent
language model behind the provider API User
specifies the task, answers questions, assesses the results answers, feedback, requests questions
Round execution
sends requests to the language model, executes the agent's commands, enforces the budget, relays questions results of commands, permitted results commands, questions, completion
candidate models
Helper agents
started by the main agent interactive operation Checks
of the delivered candidate models and model records reachable by the agent(s) Evaluation
prediction or simulation, verification of the formal requirements, ranking on the test data Sealed store
test data
evaluation report, agent's recommendation Record and report
requests, commands, results, costs; report and executable models